Assignments

Please thoroughly read and review all assignment specifications in the Assignments section available in the e-Learning site. This will ensure you receive the most complete grade for your efforts.

Class Participation and Late Assignments: Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found at <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>

Late assignments: Assignments that are late and were not arranged in advance with the instructor will receive a 5% late deduction per day for each of the first 3 days. If the assignment is turned more than three days after the due date without prior notification to the instructor, the assignment will receive an overall 20% deduction.

Missing Practicum Hours: You must complete the required practicum hours: 72 patient contact and 24 administrative hours. OR a combination of the following: minimum of 24 patient contact plus up to 48 experiential hours; and 24 administrative hours). Note that if you do not reach 72 patient contact/experiential hours, the grade for that assignment will be reduced by 5 points for each hour missed. If you do not reach 24 administrative hours, the grade will be reduced by 3 points for each hour missed. If you have extenuating circumstances that prohibit you from reaching these hours, please discuss this with your instructor/s as soon as you recognize an issue.

UF Policies & Guidelines

Students Requiring Accommodations

Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the disability Resource Center by visiting <https://disability.ufl.edu/students/get-started/>. It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester.

Course Evaluation

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Click here for guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via ufl.bluera.com/ufl/. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students here.

University Honesty Policy

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code (<https://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/>) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

Software Use

All faculty, staff, and students of the University are required and expected to obey the laws and legal agreements governing software use. Failure to do so can lead to monetary damages and/or criminal penalties for the individual violator. Because such violations are also against University policies and rules, disciplinary action will be taken as appropriate. We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to uphold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.

Student Privacy

There are federal laws protecting your privacy with regards to grades earned in courses and on individual assignments. For more information, please see:
